

SHAKER VILLAGE TO LEXINGTON

Begin your journey in central Kentucky at the beautifully restored Shaker Village of Pleasant Hill. Here you will find a peaceful and tranquil setting to learn of the spiritual history of this religious order. The village has 3,000 acres and 34 original Shaker structures that house museums, craft workshops, gift shops, overnight accommodations and a dining room.

DAY 1: SHAKER VILLAGE OF PLEASANT HILL

Memory Making Experiences:

Tour the Grounds and Buildings

Tour 34 surviving, historic buildings to learn of the iconic Shaker architecture. Interpreters and exhibits tell the story of the daily life of the Shakers including their worship, work and family life. Live musical performances and other talks happen throughout the day. Visit the working farm to meet the many animals that live and work at the village and enjoy guided and self-guided hikes throughout the pristine 3,000 acre property. All of these activities are included in the price of admission.

Take a hay ride

See the beautiful grounds from the back of a horse drawn wagon every weekend from April through October. Extra charges apply.

See Studio Artists at Work

Local artists have studio space at the Village and demonstrate their craft daily.

Ride the Dixie Belle

Take a ride about the Dixie Belle riverboat along the beautiful Kentucky River and see the palisades from April through October. Extra charges apply.

Participate in a Workshop

Learn a craft such a broom making, participate in a paddle yoga class, learn all about sustainable gardening and so much more. Check the events calendar for daily offerings.

DAY 2: LEXINGTON – HORSE CAPITAL

Memory Making Experiences:

Horse Farm Tours

There are several different ways to see the area's world famous Thoroughbred horse farms, but one of the best is to book a tour. Several tours are available and range in price from $40 -$25 and some include box lunches. For more information.

The Kentucky Horse Park

Visit the Kentucky Horse Park, 1,200 acres of prime Bluegrass farmland and the world's only park dedicated to man's relationship with the horse. This unique attraction showcases all breeds of horse through daily equine presentations, three outstanding museums, horse drawn tours and carriage rides, an art gallery, horseback riding, pony rides, and special exhibitions. For admission rates and park hours, visit <http://www.kyhorsepark.com/visit/park-info-resources/tickets-and-pricing>.

The Mural Challenge

Cap off the day by walking around downtown Lexington to view the beautiful architecture and large collection of building murals. If you can find ten murals and snap pictures of each, you can be entered to win a prize. For more information.
