

New Orleans for Culture Seekers

8:30 am- Start your morning off right with Destination Kitchen Tours, beignets, and café au lait! This tour will provide you with an opportunity to see the French Quarter in a way you never would have before!

11 am- After learning all about the French Quarter, head over to Mid-City and visit the New Orleans Museum of Art. The museum is filled with art works from New Orleans and all over.

12:30 pm- When you think of New Orleans, the thought of food follows. visit the Southern Food and Beverage Museum to learn about some Southern cooking!

2 pm- Now that you've worked up an appetite, mosey on over to the Gumbo Shop. Jambalaya, étouffée, red beans, you name it and the Gumbo Shop has it.

3:30 pm- Take the streetcar into the Garden District and explore! See all the historic mansions and pop into the historic Lafayette Cemetery on the way.

5:30 pm- At the Roosevelt hotel, head over to the Sazerac bar and try the first ever cocktail invented; the Sazerac!

6:30 pm- Treat yourself to a dinner at Antoine's, the first French-Creole fine dining restaurant in New Orleans. Make sure to try the world-famous Oyster Rockefeller!

9 pm- Head over to Preservation Hall and experience true New Orleans Jazz. The talent is unreal!

We offer complimentary assistance to plan your group visit to New Orleans. Contact us today!

www.NewOrleans.com/Groups

Tourism@NewOrleansCVB.com

504-566-5011