

New Orleans for Families

9 am- Start your day off by grabbing breakfast at Will Jean. Enjoy a fried chicken biscuit in the dining room or grab a croissant from the pastry bar and head out!

10 am- After breakfast, visit the Audubon Aquarium. See over 15,000 different types of sea creatures from all over the world.

11 am- Take the chance to rest your feet on a Hop-on Hop-off tour. You will be able to explore New Orleans like you never would have before.

1 pm- Once the tour ends, head over to Central Grocery, the home of the original Muffuletta, to grab a quick bite to eat.

4:30 pm- After taking time to relax from your long morning, head over for some family fun at Fulton Alley. Parents can enjoy a cocktail while the kids can enjoy a few games of bowling. It is the best of both worlds!

6:00 pm- Bowling can work up quite the appetite! Dat Dog on Frenchmen is loved by people of all ages. Pile your hot dog high with crawfish étouffée and dive into some bacon and ranch cheese fries.

8:00 pm- Frenchmen street is the center of the city's jazz scene. Snug Harbor has family friendly concerts 7 days a week. Hop over and see some of the city's most talented musicians.
