It’s Showtime!

Check out this itinerary for your groups that love entertainment and festivals.

Day 1

Afternoon: Start your visit with a little bargain shopping at Pigeon River Crossings.

Evening: Smith Family/Hazzard County Hoedown Dinner Theater offers a wonderful night of musical fun, accompanied by a Southern-style dinner.

Day 2

Morning & afternoon: Get a good breakfast at Log Cabin Pancake House, because you’re heading to Dollywood. Every season features something special at the theme park. Spring brings Festival of Nations and Barbeque & Bluegrass, followed by the Great American Summer. Fall is the season for the National Southern Gospel & Harvest Celebration, while winter brings a Smoky Mountain Christmas. Of course, every season at Dollywood features great entertainment, master craftsmen and a variety of rides for all ages.

Evening: Check out the mouthwatering choices at Tony Roma’s before hearing the music of Elvis and other music legends at Memories Theatre.

Day 3

Morning: One woman + 30 instruments = Patty Waszak and an energetic, musical start to your day.

Afternoon: It’s a choice of soups, salads, sandwiches and spuds when you lunch at McAlister’s Deli. Refresh with a stroll around Patriot Park on one of our Greenway Trails or a nature trail at Wear Farm City Park. Take time for musical nostalgia with a matinee performance at Country Tonite Theatre

Evening: Dinnertime fun is on the menu with a visit to Lumberjack Feud for a great meal and competing lumberjacks.

Winterfest Magic

Our multi-month celebration of the holiday and winter seasons is filled with music, sparkling lights and special events, certain to delight all ages.

Day 1

Afternoon: Get in the holiday spirit with a shopping excursion to The Incredible Christmas Place.

Evening: Witness holiday magic as Terry Evanswood performs Wonders of Magic at WonderWorks. Following the show, a tour of our Winterfest light displays is a must. A Trolley Tour of Lights can be arranged through the Fun Time Trolley office, or a private tour with a step-on guide can be arranged through one of our local receptive operators.

Day 2

Morning: Flapjacks is the place for a delicious variety of pancakes and other breakfast items. Eat up, because you’ll need some energy for Christmas shopping.

Afternoon & evening: It’s lunch at the Pottery House Café & Grille in Old Mill Square before heading to Dollywood’s Smoky Mountain Christmas.

DAY 3

Morning: You’ll find several quaint shops at Walden’s Landing to fulfill your Christmas list, along with several restaurants to satisfy your appetite before heading back home with new holiday memories.

Wilderness Wildlife Week in January and Saddle Up in February are two very special events that would make great additions to your Winterfest visit to Pigeon Forge.

Gathering with Family and Friends

Pigeon Forge is the ideal destination to reconnect with family and friends. Our accommodations, activities and facilities help make any gathering more memorable.

Day 1

Reconnect with your group in a private hospitality room at your host lodging property. In the evening, enjoy a meal catered at your hotel, condo or cabin resort; spend the evening reminiscing.

Day 2

Morning: Have breakfast family style at Mama’s Farmhouse before heading to Dollywood’s Splash Country for water fun. Non-swimmers can enjoy the fun from the comfort of a rented retreat, while watching others test the water slides. Group picnics can be arranged.

Evening: Enjoy America’s funniest variety show at Comedy Barn Theater.

Day 3

Morning: Start the morning with a delicious breakfast served with a side of music and humor at the Smith Family Dinner Theater’s Character Breakfast.

Afternoon: Plan a picnic at Patriot Park.

Coming during the summer? Include a day at Dollywood’s Splash Country, a whitewater rafting trip, a zipline adventure or a hike into Great Smoky Mountains National Park.

Student Fun and Education in Pigeon Forge

Pigeon Forge has a number of ways to merge fun and education for school and youth groups.

Day 1

Spend the day at WonderWorks, Pigeon Forge’s upside-down building is the place for interactive fun. Just outside the topsy-turvy building, you’ll find Wonders of Flight, a tethered, helium balloon that can carry up to 30 people more than 400 feet in the air.

Day 2

Morning: It’s a day at Dollywood where you have your choice of more than 40 rides and attractions, including the Wild Eagle wing coaster. Add in shows, food, crafts and shopping and you have a full day of fun.

Evening: Head to Dolly Parton’s Dixie Stampede Dinner Attraction for a four-course meal and a friendly North/South competition performed on horseback.

Day 3

Morning: Get ready for a sky-high experience on the Great Smoky Mountain Wheel, located at The Island in Pigeon Forge. The giant Ferris wheel will carry you 200 feet into the air for amazing views of the town and mountains.

Afternoon: Sit down to some of the South’s finest “Q” at Corky’s Ribs & BBQ, and then rev your engines up for some go-cart fun.

Evening: Kids love pizza, and Mellow Mushroom has what it takes to satisfy hungry appetites. Follow the meal with a movie at the Forge Cinemas or a round of mini-golf.
