

YODER ITINERARY... A STEP INTO THE PAST!

Visitors will take a step back in time when they visit the Amish community of Yoder. The town is a quaint mixture of the past and present, as horse drawn buggies are intermingled with cars and trucks.

Begin your experience at The Mercantile Shoppe where you will enjoy that down-home feeling and you will find unique décor, gifts and more. Primitives, collectibles, quilts, hand-stitched throws and antique replicas are just a few of the fabulous finds you'll take home from the Mercantile Shoppe. Proprietors: Ron & Kathy Bontrager (620) 465-2777

Quilters will want to head to Demelia's Quilt Co., a unique destination quilt shop offering an excellent selection of contemporary fabrics in a wide array of colors. Demelia's carries a large assortment of patterns, notions and kits. Contact: (620) 465-2505

A truly old-time hardware store awaits you at Yoder Hardware and Lumber right across the street, filled with kerosene lamps, Alladin lamps and a large line of Radio Flyers. Like most hardware stores, they also have all the latest gadgets for your hardware needs. Proprietors: Rod & Brad Fry (620) 465-2277

Enjoy a delicious lunch at Carriage Crossing, a delightful restaurant featuring a large menu of home-cooked meals or try the family-style all-you-can-eat dinner. They pride themselves in serving local meats from Yoder Meats and you will taste the quality difference! Be sure to save room for a slice of homemade pie! You won't want to miss their gift shop filled with handmade Amish quilts and other unique gift items. Owner: Mike Miller (620) 465-3612

After lunch you might want to take a tour of The Farm at Yoder where you will see a petting zoo, explore the barns and maybe take a wagon ride through the fields. The Farm also offers a corn maze and pumpkin patch in the fall. Contact: (620) 465-2604

Before you head out of town, make a stop at Yoder Meats/Kansas Station. Kansas Station is a warm inviting country shop showcasing an excellent array of the very best of Kansas! Locally made items, including quilts, bonnets, aprons, Amish dolls, doilies, candies, jams, jellies and Amish made baskets. Yoder Meats features some of Kansas' best smoked ham, turkey, bacon, sausage, beef jerky, dried beef and Amish cheese. Proprietors: Alan & Carol Waggoner (620) 465-3807 or (800) 952-6328
