

2015 Group Tour Offerings

Ohio History Center & Ohio Village

VISIT WITH A GROUP!

1950s

Building the American Dream

Bring your group to the Ohio History Center as we go beneath the shiny surface of 1950s pop culture and explore the social pressure cooker of that decade. Relive and rethink this defining era in the most authentic exhibit of its kind. 1950s: Building the American Dream features a full-size Lustron home built inside the museum.

Call for pricing on docent lead tours, meal options and packages.

Dinner Theatre

Dickens of a Mystery

Did you ever wonder what happened to Scrooge after his Christmas morning reformation? You are in store for a grand surprise in this evening's production of Dickens of a Mystery. As you partake in a buffet, complete with Mrs. Cratchet's famous plum pudding, you will interact with characters from A Christmas Carol and then be asked to help solve the mystery.

Your visit includes a dinner buffet and optional cocktail hour. Driver and escort complimentary.

All for only $60 per person.

Two hours, 30 person minimum/80 person maximum

OHIO HISTORY CONNECTION
800 E. 17th Ave.
Columbus, Ohio 43211-2474
ohiohistory.org

To book your visit, contact our Scheduling Office:
614.297.2266 • 800.686.1541 • grouptours@ohiohistory.org

A Red Herring Mystery

When the Soviets launch a successful nuclear test in 1949, Americans begin to eye their neighbors suspiciously, believing that Soviet spies were among us! To calm public fears, a lavish dinner is sponsored by The House Committee for Un-American Activities. At the dinner, a Senator is murdered. Conspiracy, accusations, and deception abound as one of the reporters reveals that he is actually an FBI agent. Before the night ends, a number of "Red Herrings" are all thrown into the mix and guests become involved in the questioning and decoding. As the night comes to a close, all the evidence is collected revealing the Soviet spy, and the murderer.

Your visit includes a dinner buffet and optional cocktail hour. Driver and escort complimentary.

All for only $60 per person.

Two hours, 30 person minimum/80 person maximum

Echoes in Time

History comes alive with Echoes in Time. Select from three entertaining performances including:

The Truth about Hangar 18!

Is it true...? Alien artifacts right here in Ohio?! Evidence seems to lead us to Dayton, Ohio, and Wright-Patterson's Hangar 18. How much of the legend surrounding the famous facility is true? Come, listen, and decide for yourself!

I'm Dreaming of a White Christmas

Imagine a world without computers, mobile phones, or video games...For families, Christmas time was much the same as now, except your Aunty and Uncle arrived on a train rather than a car, and Christmas cards were an important form of communication sharing stories and news of the year. Come walk down memory lane as you listen to Mabel remember and prepare for Christmas.

Echoes in Time performed at the museum are $15/person (museum admission included). Call for group pricing. Additional shows also available. 30 minutes, 30 person minimum

All Echoes in Time shows are mobile!

Let Ohio History Connection bring the entertainment to your hotel or event space.

Cocktails

The Pleasure of the Cup: Drinks of the 19th century

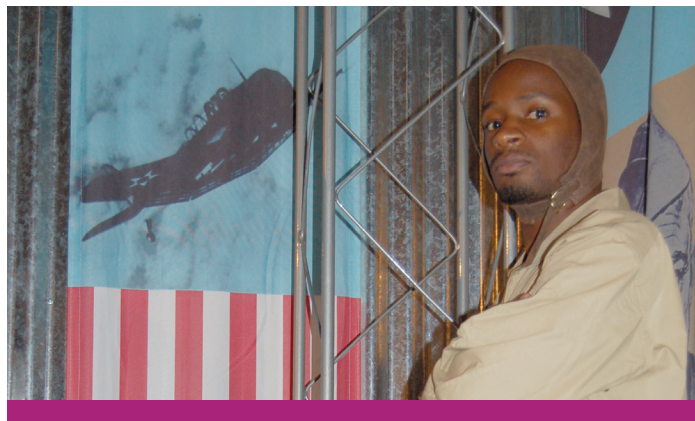

Join a 19th-century pub-crawl through Ohio Village, and sample quirky-yet-tasty concoctions... Complete your rounds at the American House Hotel, where you will enjoy humorous stories and live tavern music.

Must be 21 years of age.

All for only $35 per person. Two hours, 30 person minimum/80 person maximum

Courage in the Skies: The Story of the Tuskegee Airmen

Be inspired by true stories of the Tuskegee Airmen's tremendous service to their country and comrades during World War II. Their inspiring stories of adventure and courage will have audiences flying high with excitement.

OHIO HISTORY CONNECTION
800 E. 17th Ave.
Columbus, Ohio 43211-2474
ohiohistory.org

To book your visit, contact our Scheduling Office:
614.297.2266 • 800.686.1541 • grouptours@ohiohistory.org