

United States Trivia Answers

Test your patriotic knowledge with these trivia questions on the United States.

- 1.) What does the U.S. motto “E pluribus unum” mean? Out of many, one
- 2.) What is the country’s national emblem? Bald eagle
- 3.) What is the smallest state? Rhode Island
- 4.) What state have the most presidents come from? Virginia
- 5.) Which city is further west: Pensacola or Washington Island, Wis.? Pensacola
- 6.) Which city is further west: Los Angeles or Reno, Nev.? Reno
- 7.) Which three states were named after real people? Delaware, Louisiana and Georgia
- 8.) Can you name two states that have no counties? Louisiana has parishes, Alaska divisions
- 9.) Name two states that are touched by eight other states. Tennessee and Missouri
- 10.) Name the only person for whom two state capitals are named. Christopher Columbus – Columbus, Ohio and Columbia, S.C.
- 11.) What state would be the largest if ironed out flat? Idaho because of its mountains
- 12.) How many time zones does the U.S. have? Six time zones: Eastern, Central, Mountain, Pacific, Alaskan and Hawaii-Aleutian
- 13.) What state’s three largest cities start with the letter “c”? Ohio – Columbus, Cleveland and Cincinnati
- 14.) What is the lowest point in the U.S.? Death Valley, California
- 15.) What is the highest point in the U.S.? Mount McKinley, Alaska