On a shopping excursion, add a little friendly competition into the outing for a memorable experience. The goal is to see what is the best item that can be bought for a budget of only $5.

Directions:

- 1.) Divide everyone into teams of five. Decide if you or another passenger will serve as the game's judge.
- 2.) Either ask each player to bring one dollar or hand out $5 to each group.
- 3.) Send everyone on their shopping excursion with the mission that they determine the best item they can find with the overall budget of $5. They must purchase the item and bring it back to the motorcoach with the receipt.
- 4.) When the teams return, review the items and receipts for each team. You or another designated judge will choose the winning team with the best items. Award a worthy prize, such as shopping gift cards or another fun destination-related gift.
