

Presidential Puzzlers

Test your knowledge about the men who have served in our nation's highest office.

1. Name the father and son duo who both became presidents:
2. Name the two cousins who both served as president:
3. Who were the grandfather and grandson who both came to hold the office of president?
4. What state has produced the most presidents and claims the nickname "mother of presidents?"
5. How many presidents came from the state above?
6. What is the other state that claims the nickname "mother of presidents?"
7. Who was our first president who came from this state?
8. Who was the first vice president to become president?
9. How many presidents served without a vice president for their entire time in office?
10. Who was the only president to have a first lady who was not his wife?
11. Who was the first president to serve as both president and chief justice of the United States?
12. Which president shared a birthday with our nation?
13. Who was the first president to hold a doctorate?
14. Who was the first president to have a telephone and a typewriter in the White House?
15. Name one of the three presidents who have won a Grammy for Best Spoken Word album?

