

New Orleans for a Day

9:30 am- Start your day off right with a warm beignet and some Café au lait from the famous Café du Monde

10 am- Across the street, the beautiful St. Louis Cathedral, the iconic structure that presides over Jackson Square, beckons you inside. Stop in the gift shop and pick up a St. Christopher token to give you good luck on your travels.

11 am- There are some amazing artists displaying their work around Jackson Square. Stop and chat with them as you admire their work.

12 pm- With big plans for the afternoon, fuel up on oysters, gumbo, and all things New Orleans at Acme Oyster House

1:30 pm- Take a marathon tour of New Orleans museums and stop by the Ogden Museum of Southern Art, where you'll be carried away by the abstract paintings of Southern landscapes by Will Henry Stevens

4:00 pm- Make the nearby National World War II Museum your next stop. Visitors love how it focuses on telling the personal stories of the war, which are even more poignant in the presence of veterans who volunteer at the museum. The 4D movie will knock your socks off – and give your weary feet -- a much needed break

8pm- After a nap and rejuvenating dinner, stop by The Spotted Cat, a quintessential New Orleans Jazz club. Man, can those guys play.
