

Remember When TV Quiz

See how many of these old TV shows you can guess correctly. You'll have to think far back in time for some of these!

1. "Freddie the Freeloader" and "Clem the Kadiddlehopper" were two of this comedian's characters
2. A famous director, whose silhouette announced the show delivered a short monologue at the end explaining how the villains got what they deserved.
3. If you opened your front door one day and there stood Michael Anthony, would you (a) call the police, (b) call your lawyer, or (c) call your banker.
4. Name the TV show from number three.
5. This gunslinger quoted Shakespeare, sometimes wore all black and his business card featured the white knight of a chess game.
6. His kids were the first to say the darndest things.
7. Margaret Anderson's husband knew best. Name the show.
8. This guy was to scuba what Ester Williams was to the sidestroke.
9. Name his show from number eight.
10. In what show did William Tell's Overture take you back to "those thrilling days of yesteryear?"

