DAY 1 A DAY IN RIDGELAND

ARRIVE in Ridgeland and check in at one of our stylish and inviting hotels. After unpacking, stop by the Ridgeland Visitors Center located in the beautiful Renaissance at Colony Park. Our Visitor Center staff can't wait to welcome you to Ridgeland with a wealth of area information, tips for exploring, and maybe even send you on your way with a bag of Ridgeland goodies!

STROLL the cobble stone streets of the Old World style, Renaissance at Colony Park. Renaissance sets architectural artistry against lavish landscaping to create an experience beyond just scoring the perfect shopping finds. Not only will you discover local and high-end boutiques, lifestyle shops, and the state's only Apple Store but also interactive water features, sidewalk cafes, and an inviting village center.

SAVOR culinary creations designed to delight the artist at heart. With local in the name, Local 463 Urban Kitchen is a Ridgeland favorite serving southern comfort food with a big city twist. You can't go wrong with anything on this award winning menu, but might we suggest the Honey-Rosemary Fried Chicken or the outrageously delicious, Dr. Pepper-Braised beef Short Ribs. Enjoy your meal on the spacious outdoor patio or in the bright, contemporary dining room with walls adorned with the work of local artists.

INDULGE your sweet tooth after lunch with a treat from The Whimsy Cookie Company! This cookie shop isn't just famous for their signature Goopy Butter Cookies. Whimsy is co-owned by Collins Tuey Smith. You might recognize her as a member of the Tuey family whose life was documented in the Hollywood Blockbuster, The Blind Side.
