

Ten Commandments For All Travelers

Don't you hate it when one member of your group's negativity is affecting the rest of the group?

Lay down the law early by reading these 10 Travel Commandments, which remind your group how important it is to not worry and enjoy their vacation. Read this before every trip and see how it changes the mood of your group!

1. Thou shall not expect to find things precisely as they are at home, for thou has left home to find different things.
2. Thou shalt not take anything too seriously, for a carefree mind is a basis for a good vacation.
3. Thou shalt not let other tour members get on thy nerves, for thou art paying good money to enjoy thyself.
4. Thou shalt not worry. He that worrieth hath little joy and the tour has an group leader to do this for you.
5. Thou shalt not judge all the people of a country or area by one person with whom thou hast had difficulties.
6. Blessed are those who can wait patiently and smile for they shall surely enjoy themselves.
7. Thou shalt take turns leaving the bus first. All creatures on earth have to right to be first.
8. Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for a short period of time, for thy waitress is busy and we are a large group!
9. Thou art welcome in every place. Treat thy host with respect and thou shalt be an honored guest.
10. Bless thy escort and driver for surely they deserve it.
