

Problems & Solutions Game

Get your group's creative juices flowing with this fun game. The combinations can have the whole bus rolling with laughter!

Instructions:

Divide each side of the bus into two equal teams. Give each passenger a small piece of paper and provide any pens needed.

Tell one side of the bus that they all have a problem and to write it down. Their names are not necessary. Tell the other side of the bus that they have a solution and to write it down.

Collect all the problems and solutions, making sure to keep the two categories separate. Randomly pick a piece of paper out of each category. Then read out the problem and the solution. The results can keep your bus ride rolling with laughter!
