

THE “GIRLS’ GETAWAY” INTINERARY

Grab your BFFs and head to Laredo for a girls’ getaway you’ll never forget! Enjoy unique shopping, fabulous food, and some much-needed quality time with your favorite people in the world.

Start planning your trip by booking a stay at Laredo’s historic La Posada Hotel. This boutique hotel is centrally located downtown, has two pools, and is home to The Tack Room, AKA “The best little steakhouse in South Texas.”

Start your day with brunch to give you enough energy to begin your retail therapy session. Lolita’s Bistro offers an artistic setting along with a tasty menu. Their chicken and waffles is to die for, and don’t forget to order a craft cocktail with your meal. After all, you are on vacation.

And now on to the best part of the trip: the shopping. Don’t forget your walking shoes. Head over to San Bernardo Avenue where you’ll find a variety of authentic handmade goods. You’ll learn the fun way that you don’t have to cross the border for your Mexican souvenirs.

Eventually, you’ll reach your 10,000 daily steps goal and it’ll be time for a reward. Or maybe the South Texas sun has caused you to build up a thirst of epic proportions. Either way, it will probably be close enough to happy hour to indulge in a post-shopping refreshment or two and a recap of the day.

Later in the evening, after freshening up at the hotel, close out your girls’ trip by hitting the town. A good dinner spot is Border Foundry, offering a full menu along with a wine listing. Treat yourself and splurge a bit—you deserve it!
